Come Learn About Business Owners Sharing Solutions

BOSS, or Business Owners Sharing Solutions, is a group comprised of business owners (who are South Metro Denver Chamber investors) who will act as advisers and mentors to one another in a confidential atmosphere to enhance their business success. The group meets monthly for one year and each meeting will focus on a particular individual's business. This is an opportunity for each participant to present areas of concern and gain valuable ideas from their fellow business owners. There is no cost for this program, as it is part of your Chamber investment.

We are currently looking for any Chamber investors who may be interested in joining the BOSS group!
